

THE COAST.

The Stock Market Still Fluctuating.

FIFTEEN SKELETONS FOUND.

The Citrus Fair—Fruit Transportation Rates to be Reduced.

Coast News.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]
SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—Stocks were all weaker again this morning. Consolidated Virginia opened at $27, a drop of $5, closing at $27.25. Best & Belcher dropped, at the opening, to $8, and under heavy sales went to $7.75 but recovered at the close, to $8.25, a loss of $1 on yesterday. Transactions in Gould & Curry and Ophir were the heaviest of the morning. The former, which closed last night at $8.75, opened today at $9.50, went to $9.25, and closed at $9.74. Ophir opened at a loss of $4.50, but recovered to $9, closing at $10. Closing quotations of others were: Chollar, $4; Crown Point, $4.50; Hale & Norcross, $4.10; Mexican, $4.25; Savage, $7.50; Sierra Nevada, $3.50; Utah, $3.25; Yellow Jacket, $4.87½. Potomac was the only one which showed any strength. It opened at $6.25, and notwithstanding heavy sales, increased to $7, which it closed.

The market steadily improved after the close of the morning session and when the afternoon board came together the prices went up with a rush on larger sales. Some of the shares advanced in price from the figures of the morning session. Best and Belcher advanced from $7.75 to $15.75. Chollar showed a rise of $2.25 from the morning's quotation of $4. Gould and Curry advanced from $8.75 to $10 above prices at which it opened this morning, closing at $37. Gould and Curry followed the procession with an upward move of $3.12½ over the closing figures this morning, selling at $57. Ophir went up $3, closing at $15.50. Crown Point advanced $2.25, closing price $12.75. Sierra Nevada more than doubled in value over the closing prices of the morning, which was $3.50. It rose to $9.25 and closed at $9.75 after the sales of 3000 shares had been made.

At the close the stocks stood: Best & Belcher $15.75, Chollar $6.25, Crocker $27, Consolidated California and Virginia $37, Peer 50s, Peerless 80s, Ophir $15, Savage $12.75, Hale & Norcross $4.90, Confidence $9.50, Potomac $9.34, Sierra Nevada $9.75, Union Consolidated $9, Utah $10.50, Yellow Jacket $6.25.

A GHOSTLY FIND.

The Skeletons of Fifteen Persons Found in Mud Flats.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—A few days ago in the mud flats of the bay, near the Potrero, in the southern part of the city, a skeleton was found. This led to prospecting the locality for means to identify the bones with the result that the next day another skeleton was unearthed, and to-day a large number of bones were brought to light. In the ghastly collection there are no less than seven skulls, and the femur and tibia found represent the remains of fifteen persons. The locality where the bones were found is a site with a view of full deers and wholesale murder. The fact that two of the skulls have holes in them is believed to confirm such supposition. Another theory is that they are the bones of pauper inmates of some public institution that have been dumped into the bay by men employed to bury them, as the easiest way of disposing of them. A full investigation will be made by the coroner.

THE CITRUS FAIR.

The Preparations Almost Completed—A New Premium.

SACRAMENTO, December 10.—The preparations for the Citrus Fair, which begins next Monday, are about completed. The immense hall in which the fair is to be held has been beautifully decorated with palm leaves and evergreens. Exhibits are pouring in and are being placed in position. The secretary of the association has received a telegram from T. H. Goodman announcing that the rates for those who wish to attend the fair will be two-thirds the regular rates.

Charles Crocker has informed the Citrus Fair Association that the Southern Pacific Company has decided to give an exhibit of $250 per annum as a premium for the exhibitor who shall make the greatest progress during the year preceding the exhibition in demonstrating the capacity of the particular section of citrus fruit production for commercial purposes. Those raising fruits merely for ornamental purposes will be barred. Only those raising them as a business enterprise will be allowed to compete for the prize.

FRUIT TRANSPORTATION.

Railroads Will Lower the Rates to Chicago and New York.

SACRAMENTO, December 10.—The following telegram was received by the committee on transportation appointed by the fruit growers at their State convention held in Sacramento, November 15th to 20th:
NEW YORK, December 10.—A boom for northern and central California is now in order. Mr. Kimball, the General Manager of the Union Pacific, agrees to pro-rate on the fruit transportation on any terms agreeable to the Southern and Central Pacific. Mr. O. Mills kindly assisted me in obtaining concessions from the railroad companies. He has just returned from an interview with Mr. Huntington. Mr. Mills tells me that Mr. Huntington favors the $300 rate to Chicago, and $400 to New York, fast time, ten car trains. Mr. Huntington says that the arrangements can be made on that basis with Mr. Towne and Mr. Stubbs at San Francisco.

Of Committee Representing California Fruit Growers' Convention.

Robbed by a Highbinder.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—A bold robbery took place yesterday afternoon in broad daylight. As Mrs. Samuel Rainey, wife of the superintendent of the steam fire engines of the fire department, was walking down Clay street, near Stockton, with her purse in her hand, a Chinaman jumped out of a doorway, snatched the purse from her grasp and ran away, making his escape. The hold highbinder secured $40 in coin and a pair of earrings.

STREET CAR TROUBLE.

The Geary Street Men Demand an Increase.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—Late last night when the strikers on the Sutter street cable road heard that Superintendent McCord intended to attempt to run the cars to-day, a meeting was called and a conference held with a delegation from the Geary street cable road. It was urged upon the Geary street men that many stockholders in the Sutter street road were also stockholders in the Geary street line, and that while the latter road was allowed to run there would be less chance of bringing the Sutter Street Company to terms. The result of the conference was that the Geary street men appointed a committee to wait on Superintendent McCord and demand that the pay be increased from $2.25 to $2.50 per day, and that the time be reduced from thirteen and a half and fourteen hours to twelve hours. The committee waited on the Superintendent, who received them courteously, and announced to them that it possible he would see that their request was granted, but would endeavor to give them a definite answer by three o'clock this afternoon.

No change has taken place at a late hour to-night in the street car strike. The Sutter street line continued to run few cars during the entire day. No attempt was made to take the time by the Geary street line, on which a strike was also threatened to-day, experienced no trouble, all their men continuing at work.

Street Cars Running.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—The tie up on the Sutter-street was broken this morning. Four cars were started, the first two being engineered by assistant superintendents of the road, and the others by clerks in the office. No attempt was made to impede the progress of the cars by the strikers. The strikers have had circulars printed, appealing to the people not to patronize the road, and are scattering them broadcast throughout the city. No attempt was made to start the cars on the Pacific or Larkin street branches.

An Embezzling Broker.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—J. L. Armstrong, one of the members of the San Francisco Stock Board, whose failure occurred during the stock panic last week, has been arrested on three warrants sworn out by Mary M. Springer, Sarah A. Hough and Eliza J. King, charging him with embezzlement. Mr. Armstrong stated that he had been doing business for the complainants for some time prior to his failure, and that his total indebtedness to them is probably about $1100.

New Mining Discoveries.

PHOENIX, A. T., December 10.—There is great excitement here over the late discoveries at the Phoenix mine, Cave Creek district. Their new tunnel is now in a ledge of ore forty-five feet thick, yielding $15 per ton. This, with former developments, exposes 1,000,000 tons of ore, and parties interested claim it is the largest discovery on the Pacific coast.

A GOOD SENTENCE.

Four Toughs Sent to the County Jail.

CHARLES CLARKE, JOHN BROWN, JOHN CURRAN and JOHN MARTIN, four tough looking tramps, who took exactly like counterparts of the pictures of members of New York "growler" gangs, were brought up before Justice Austin yesterday on the charge of battery. The three were indicted on the alley of the Black on Aliso street, at half-past eleven last night, and when Andy Toal, a blacksmith, passed by, they came out one by one and asked him for something to eat; they pulled his moustache and otherwise abused him. Toal proceeded on his way, but the gang of toughs followed him and knocked him down. His cries brought Officers Lindheimer, Mannon and Fowler to the rescue, and the four rascals were arrested. They pleaded not guilty, but after the Court had heard the evidence he sent John Brown to the county jail for six months and gave the other three five months apiece. A few such sentences will soon clear Los Angeles of the number of vagrants who have elected domicile here, and who now pass their time in the few low dives of the city when they are not in the police prison.

Overloaded Street Cars.

E. M. LORRIEKE was arrested yesterday on two charges of violating the street car ordinance, under warrants issued from the Mayor's court. Lorrieke is superintendent of the Main Main Street and Agricultural Park railroad, and the warrants charge him with overcrowding street cars. The complaint was sworn to by M. V. Wright, an officer of the Los Angeles Humane Society. The prisoner was released without giving bonds.

EASTERN.

Trades and Labor Conference in Columbus.

A NEW TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

Three Negroes Lynched—Ohio Village Burned—A New Invention.

Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.

COLUMBUS, O., December 10.—The Trades conference to-day instructed its committee to insist upon a settlement of the difference between Unions and the Knights of Labor upon the basis of a trades treaty, and Mr. Daly, of the Shoe lasters, was added to the committee, instead of President Weihe, of the Amalgamated Association. A fight was made on a political resolution. It was framed by Messrs. Kirshner and Block, and advocated the formation of a new party by workmen, trades unions being particularly urged to take action looking in this direction. Several clauses regarding third-partyism were struck out by a large majority of the vote, and the resolution, after being amended thoroughly, was adopted. Without lengthy preamble, it reads: Resolved, That this convention urge the most generous support to the independent political movement of workmen.

A resolution opposing the preference the government is supposed to give to ex-soldiers in the matter of employment was killed, but another asking Congress to pass a compulsory indenture law for the District of Columbia and the Territories was adopted. It was decided to make the night session continuous to close. The conference resolved itself into a Trades Congress about 4 P. M., and some time was devoted to financial matters. When the Congress adjourned it was understood that the conference of trades unionists was to meet at 7 P. M., but when the Congress adjourned it was understood that the conference of trades unionists was to meet at 7 P. M., but when the Congress adjourned it was understood that the conference of trades unionists was to meet at 7 P. M.

The Wine Growers.

The wine growers of Southern California held a meeting yesterday at the rooms of the Board of Trade and discussed the Free Wine Bill now before Congress. It was the sentiment of the meeting that a representative should be sent to Washington to advocate the interests of the wine growers of California, and that Mr. J. De Barth Shorb should be that representative. Mr. Shorb states that it will be impossible for him to accept the position on account of his other engagements. If his declaration cannot be overcome another representative will probably be chosen.

WASHINGTON.

Sweet Wine Bill Under Consideration.

THE PRESIDENT IMPROVING.

The Death of Representative Dowdney Causes the House to Adjourn.

Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—The Committee on Ways and Means took up the Sweet Wine Bill yesterday. The bill comes before a committee in this way: A bill to tax the fractional part of a gallon of liquor in barrels passed the House in the early part of the last session, and was sent to the Senate. There the bill was amended by adding to it the sweet wine measure. In this amended form it went back to the House and was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. Feltus was present and urged upon the members of the committee that they concur in the Senate amendment, but the committee refused to grant the request of the Senate for a committee of conference. This report was made to the House, and the speaker said he would appoint a committee of conference. In a short time a committee of three from the House and a like committee from the Senate will now take up the bill and try to come to some agreement about it. The Sweet Wine Bill is by no means in a hopeless condition. If proper work is done with the committee of conference in the way of explanation and enlightenment, it is probable that they will recommend that the amendment be agreed to. It seems that the law is just within the grasp of California wine-makers. There is no organized effort to defeat it, although there are a number of people not in favor of it.

THE PRESIDENT IMPROVING.

He is Able to Resume Public Receptions.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—The President was so much improved in health to-day that he was able to resume his public receptions in the East room. In addition he received about fifty callers in his private office, most of whom were members of Congress.

CHINESE RESTRICTION.

Two Important Bills Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—Perry Belmont said yesterday that he hoped to get up a Chinese restriction bill at this session, but he said that the Chinese indemnity bill must first pass. "I see that you had thirteen parties in your State at the last election," said he. Upon being informed that there was no division of opinion on that subject in California, he said he would do all he could to push the measure through the House. He feared that its progress might be retarded by too much talk on the part of its friends, as the time for its consideration would be limited.

Death of Representative Dowdney.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—Representative Dowdney, of the 18th district of New York, died at his residence on Madison avenue, New York city, this morning. He was stricken with apoplexy upon entering his home last night. After the reading of the journal in the House Mr. Campbell, of New York, announced with sorrow and regret the death of his colleague, Abraham Dowdney, and offered resolutions expressive of regret with which the House concurred. The resolutions were unanimously adopted and the House, as a mark of respect, at 12:20 adjourned until to-morrow.

CAPTAIN LAWTON

Thinks the Apaches are Now Subdued.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—Captain Henry M. Lawton, who commanded the troops which captured Geronimo in the late Apache campaign in Arizona, has arrived in this city. Captain Lawton, in an interview, stated that the Indian question, as a disturbing element in Arizona, has been practically settled by the capture of Geronimo. It might be possible that the White Mountain band, consisting of various Apache tribes, might cause some trouble in the future, but at present confidence seems to have been restored to the people of Arizona, and there was not much doubt that the Territory would receive more settlers than it had done for several years past.

A Bank President Suicides.

CHICAGO, December 10.—A special to the Inter-Ocean from Fort Wayne, Indiana, says: Oscar A. Simons, President of the First National Bank, suicided this afternoon while in a distracted condition. He had been suffering for some time from nervous prostration, the result of over work. To-day his ailment became unbearable, and telling his brother-in-law, Esmond, he could endure it no longer, Simons jerked a revolver from a bureau drawer and shot himself through the temple. The dead man was the wealthiest citizen of Fort Wayne.

Sir Lucius and Bob Acres.

TRENTON, N. J., December 10.—A report is widely in circulation here of a duel said to have taken place on the Pennsylvania side of the river, opposite this city, early yesterday morning. The principals are said to have been a druggist and a sporting man, both of Trenton. The cause of the affair was honor was a pretty Jersey belle. Revolvers were the weapons. Both parties were wounded in the shoulder. The names of the duellists have not been divulged.

Another Schooner Wrecked.

POINT ARENA, Cal., December 10.—The schooner Elsie Iverson went ashore here last night. It will be a total loss. Part of the lumber of the schooner Hyde, which is also ashore, may be saved, but the cargo of posts, shakes and bark on the Elsie Iverson will be a total loss. The schooners are insured but there is no insurance on the cargoes. This is the heaviest loss that has ever occurred in this harbor.

OLDRIDGE HOMICIDE.

The Kilgore Trial Approaching Termination.

Kilgore on Thursday, in his testimony, told the jury that Oldridge immediately before the shooting threw a putty cup and brushes at him and afterwards attacked him with a putty knife. The testimony of Theodore Giese had been directly contrary to this statement, as he swore that Oldridge threw the putty knife at Kilgore. The defendant laid great stress upon the fact that the deceased had advanced upon him with that putty knife and insisted that it was the fear of death at the hands of Oldridge with the weapon that induced him to shoot. The prosecution, in order to disprove the statement of the defendant and show that he was not in fear of the knife, as it had been previously thrown by the deceased, produced rebuttal testimony yesterday morning.

When the case was called yesterday the prosecution wanted the defendant recalled to the stand. The defense objected to this course, but the court overruled the objection and Kilgore took the stand. He was asked by the prosecution whether he had not immediately after the shooting refused to Mr. Luitwieler that the deceased had thrown a putty knife at Oldridge. The defense objected, but the court told the defendant to answer. Kilgore replied that he did not remember having said so. He might, though he wasn't sure altogether what it was that Oldridge had thrown at him.

Mr. Luitwieler was then recalled in rebuttal and in reply to a question similar to that which had been put to the defendant, said that he believed Kilgore had said so.

Theodore Giese recalled said that Oldridge threw nothing but the putty knife, and that he would have seen the brush and putty cup thrown if such had been the case.

J. E. Cleveland testified that he was working at Luitwieler's at the time of the shooting. There were three putty knives used in the shop of which witness was using one, but he couldn't say who was using the others. There also was one putty cup and two brushes in the shop, but the witness did not know who used them on that day. He had found the putty cup on the wagon upon which Oldridge had been engaged, after the killing. The witness explained that putty is kept soft by putting water on the top of it in the cup, and that then it would not dry for a couple of days. When he found the cup the putty was still in a state to be used. If the cup had been emptied at the time of the crime the putty would not have been in condition to be used when witness found it. The prosecution rested.

The Court then asked counsel to be as explicit as possible in their argument as to Mr. Gage's offer to submit the case without argument, but the prosecution would not agree to this course. District Attorney Hilton then opened for the people and spoke until recess. At the afternoon session Mr. Holton concluded at 2:25, when Mr. Gage addressed the jury for the defense. He completed his argument at 4:30, when court was adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning. Hon. S. M. White will make the closing speech for the people. The attendance yesterday in the courtroom was very large throughout the day.

WHEAT in all the markets of the world took a very sudden upward turn in price a short time since and is still going up like a barometer in an exposed place during the early afternoon hours of a warm August day. The reason for this was a bit occult to the average optic. Market reporters and dealers who do not see beyond the end of their nose referred it to an apparent dry year in California, a proposition in which there is neither truth nor sense. Others alleged it was due to the fact that France would need a large supply of foreign breadstuffs. In this there really is something. France is a buyer, and so is Germany, and when these countries buy, wheat cannot rule low. But that France would be in the market had been known for many months. That Germany is there is not due to a short crop at home, but to an unusual demand. That demand is the key to the situation. It is the fear of a general European war which has made Germany a buyer of wheat. It is that fear which has sent wheat up so suddenly in all countries. The war is over the dismemberment of Turkey. One thing is certain—that Russia will be a party in the fight. Her usual wheat supplies will be cut off from Western Europe for one or more seasons. Another thing is almost certain—that is that all Europe will be drawn into the contest, on one side or the other, and sooner or later. When it comes down to close speculation as to how the great armies will be marshaled there is a good deal of doubt. England is more than likely to espouse the cause of Turkey in order to secure, first, her bonds held by the Porte, and secondly, a share of the Sultan's dominions when the dismemberment takes place. Austria will be on the same side, for the last of the reasons in the case of England. How France and Italy will stand is uncertain. They are jealous of England, and therefore likely to come to an entente cordiale with Russia. But, after all it is Germany who holds the key to the situation. How will the great military Empire cast her lot? That no one will know until the act is done. She may stand aside, and see all the contestants exhaust their strength and their resources, and then step in and take the greater part of the prey from the teeth of all "the dogs of war." She may join one side or the other at any stage in the game. Whatever she does it will be with an eye single to the interests of herself and for her own aggrandizement. It does not yet appear to an outsider with which side these interests may best be subserved. It probably is not yet clear to Germany herself what action she had better take. She will let the others take their sides, come to blows, and thus reveal the probable turn in the great tide of affairs, and be guided by these developments. In any case she will keep herself in a position to play the arbitrator or dictator between the two sides and take her toll from both.

Since writing the article on the Sweet Wine Bill, which appears in these columns to-day, we learn that the wine-makers of this section met yesterday and chose J. DeBarth Shorb, Esq., to visit Washington for the purpose. There could not be a more fitting selection made. Mr. Shorb is in every way most admirably fitted for this work. It is much to be regretted that this gentleman finds it incompatible with his business engagements to perform the important service for this section and for the whole State. The earliest possible action should be taken to name some other well qualified person to perform this important duty for California sweet wines.

DEMOCRATIC efficiency in office is most clearly exemplified in the case of Judge Hager, the Collector of the Port of San Francisco. He has made his deputies a genuine terror to opium smugglers. These officials are as alert as wild cats, and as cunning as foxes, in their vigilance and schemes to stop this illicit traffic in the terrible drug which is the curse of China. Hardly a steamer comes into the bay that a seizure of more or less magnitude is not made. It must be that under so watchful and wise a policy this smuggling of opium will soon be put a stop to. Hager deserves the greatest credit for the way in which he is enforcing the laws.

The greatest gratification will be felt by all good citizens at the news of the President's improved health. It would be a very great calamity should anything serious interfere with the President's personal administration of the government. There is no Vice-President to take Mr. Cleveland's place in case of any disability. The earlier news of yesterday was of an alarming nature, but a later dispatch sets this canard at rest.

right to take his one hundred ounces of silver to the mint and convert it into dimes or dollars, or let him take it to the sub-treasury and get silver notes in such denominations as he chooses. Let him get one hundred $1 notes, or one $100 note as he sees fit. This will relieve the country of all trouble on this head, and allow the poorest and the richest the same rights and privileges.

DEMOCRACY can make itself solidly popular with the people this year in one way; and failing to work in that way, it will lose more or less of the good name it at present enjoys in the Union. The way is to take decisive but conservative steps to remodel the tariff schedule. Republican papers profess to see an inconsistency in the President's message, because he wants the tariff reformed with as little disturbance to business as possible. Such pretense is of course the most insincere and silly thing in the world. Such papers think of nothing but their party, and care nothing for it but to keep it in power. Before they are of all patriotism, the narrow partisan prejudice that rules their utterances, leads them to desire one of two things—either that the Democrats would adopt Morrison's horizontal bill, or else do nothing at all. The tariff can be remodeled without serious disturbance to business. There are industries which have been fostered under the wing of the war tariff schedule which are now so strong that they can stand on their own feet and not suffer collapse, nor even be crippled by a lowering of the tariff now on similar imported goods. There will follow a great relief to the people upon any just and efficient revision of the tariff. The people think this, and demand that it shall be put into practical operation.

GREAT hopes are entertained that the Sweet Wine bill will pass Congress during the current session. It, by all means, should pass, and doubtless can be got through by proper work. It is opposed by the prohibition wing of the Republican party and by makers of fruit brandy in certain parts of the Union. Reasons can be shown both these opponents why they should aid in the passage of this bill. But the wine-makers should send a man to Washington who is well posted in the whole matter—who will aid our representatives to get the bill past the two houses. Much good was done in this way at the last session. The measure is not past danger by any means, and no risk should be run. We do not recall any member of Congress from California who has that intimate, practical knowledge of this subject, which gives promise of a successful prosecution of it before that body. By all means let a well qualified man go on early and work with the California delegation in this matter.

EXEMPLIFICATION of the fairness of disposition usually found among good Democrats crops out in the case of Hon. J. Marion Brooks. He is elected a member of the Assembly from the joint district formed by the counties of Kern and Ventura. His Republican opponent has alleged that Brooks was elected by fraud. He has been threatening a contest. Although by a technicality of the law Mr. Brooks could bar such contest at the present stage of the game, he wishes to make the announcement for himself that he is ready to waive all such merely technical grounds. He will allow his opponent to go on and contest. Furthermore, he challenges said opponent to make such contest. He will be disappointed if his opponent does not make the contest.

Our most highly esteemed contemporary, the Express, in reply to an article in the Herald on the Congressional contest, says:

At best, the Herald's argument is to the effect that acts of injustice have been done by the Republican party, and therefore there is excuse for similar acts on the other side. The writer of this either cannot comprehend a very simple statement in plain language, or resorts to a untruth.

A Blessing to the Human Race.

California with its extensive and fertile wheat fields are a great blessing to the Human Race, yet Abietene which can only be produced in the golden State is destined to become one of our chief products and be as much of a blessing to the world as her wheat fields. Abietene has great healing and purifying qualities, and by incorporating it into the Abietene Cough Balsam we have, it makes a Cough Remedy that has no equal. And there is nothing that heals the lungs so rapidly and cures all throat and lung troubles as Abietene. It contains no opium. Price 75 cents. Sold by C. F. Heinemann.

The only remedy that takes away all pain is St. Jacobs Oil. It never fails.

“CHRISTMAS” HOLIDAY OPENING AT HALE'S.

SINCE THE REIGN OF THE EMPEROR COMMODUS, 192 A. D., continuing throughout the observances of the German Yule Feast festivities, and until the present day, the 25th day of December has been recognized by all as a day of general rejoicing.

Business cares for the moment are cast aside; recollections of the past come strongly and vividly before us; the hearthstone of our distant homes is brought nearer; and the happy circle—father, mother, sister, brother, friend—gathered together upon that festive morn, is before us again, as in childhood's happy days. Souvenirs are sent, thousands of miles, from one end of the continent to the other; the question only being, what shall we buy, and what would be most suitable. From Monday, December 13th, until Friday, December 24th, inclusive, our stores will be open from 7:30 A. M. until 9 P. M., and on Saturdays from 7:30 A. M. until 10 o'clock P. M. This will give everyone an opportunity to visit us and to purchase Holiday Goods at Holiday Prices.

Opening Day, Monday, Dec. 13, AND EVERY DAY THEREAFTER.

A USEFUL CHRISTMAS PRESENT. WE WILL PLACE ON SALE MONDAY, DECEMBER 13TH, a beautiful selection of Plush Goods, comprising Toilet Sets, Manicure Sets, Odor Cases, Glove Boxes, Handkerchief Boxes, Collar and Cuff Boxes, Hand Bags, Thimble Cases, Albums, Needle Cases, Pencil Cases, Mirrors, Whisk Broom Cases, etc.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR A LADY. A PAIR OF KID GLOVES, FIVE AND EIGHT BUTTON length, in well assorted colors and in black, is appreciated by everyone. The well known “Centeneri,” the best glove in the market, needs no description. We will offer during the holidays the “Williams” Glove in a well assorted selection of colors, at 50c. per pair. This glove will be found equal to the “Foster,” and good value at $1.25. Five-button length.

A Fashionable Christmas Present. AN OPERA FAN—THE LATEST NOVELTY—A FAN COMPOSED ENTIRELY OF OSTRICH FEATHERS and in different colors, is very much in demand for evening occasions. A full line of hand-painted, ivory and bone; also in satin in every imaginable tint.

EVERY LADY KNOWS. What a pleasure a comfortable fitting shoe. Many needlessly sacrifice beauty for the sake of comfort, on account of the inability of the salesman to properly fit the customer arising sometimes from a lack of experience on the salesman's part, and often from an insufficient stock of boots and shoes. No such difficulty exists at

EVERY MAN KNOWS. The meaning of corns, bunions, etc., arising from ill-fitting shoes. Business men rush into a store in a hurry and often purchase a shoe too short, owing to a lack of proper knowledge on the salesman's part and their own neglect, and after a few days' wear they make the air sulphurous with the wrath directed at the head of the unfortunate store-keeper who sold the shoes. Laboring men need strong and comfortable shoes to sustain their tired forms during long hours of daily toil. Come to EVERY CHILD KNOWS. From little experience, what misery their little feet endure from awkward, clumsy, ill-fitting shoes, distorting the appearance of, and deforming their little feet.

EVERY MOTHER KNOWS. How difficult it is to secure comfortable, durable shoes for children. How many exclaim: “Oh, dear, when and where will I find something that will last a little while?” To all of the above we can only say, if you will come to

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Government Bonds and Railway Shares.

New York, December 10.—Government bonds dull and firm. Stocks displayed universal weakness, declines ranging in most cases from 1 to 5 per cent. Dealings were feverish and the afternoon was attended with considerable excitement. The most notable decline was in Richmond and West Point, its extreme loss being over 6 per cent for which the monetary situation was entirely responsible. The opening was somewhat irregular but strong, advances over last evening's final figures ranging from 1/4 to 5/8 generally, while Richmond and West Point was up one per cent. The market was weak from the opening, and declines ranging up to 1 1/4 were made in the first hour. A halt in the decline followed, and a break which lasted until 1:30, another period of comparative dullness, and then strength followed; but in the last hour the decline was renewed, though the market closed on a slight rally, feverish and unsettled at small fractions better than the lowest prices of the day.

Pittsburgh, Pa., December 10.—There was a healthier tone to the market today. No more failures have been reported. Prices held up firmly and a feeling prevailed that the worst was over.

Crop Report. WASHINGTON, December 10.—The crop report of the Agricultural Department says: December returns average firm, prices by counties show material reduction as compared with the values of the crops of 1885 in wheat, corn and barley. Corn has made an advance nearly equivalent to the percentage of reduction in quantity. Oats are in sympathy with corn rather than with the small grain used for human food, and averages slightly higher in value than last year. The farm value of corn was 13 cents per bushel in December last, 14 cents in 1885, one cent higher than the crop of 1884. The average for the previous five years was 14 1/2 cents, and for the ten years prior to 1880 it was 12 1/2 cents. The average December prices in wheat is 69 cents, a reduction of 5 cents from the average value of the crop, and 15 cents above the price in 1884.

WORTHY Of Confidence.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla is a medicine that, during nearly 40 years, in all parts of the world, has proved its efficacy as the best blood-purifier known to medical science.

SARSAPARILLA (extracted from genuine Homidus Sarsaparilla) is its base, and its powers are enhanced by the extracts of Yellow Dock and Stillingia, the radicals of Potassium and Iron, and other potent ingredients. Your blood vitiated by derangements of the digestive and assimilatory functions? Is it tainted by Scrofula? or does it contain the poison of Mercury or Contagious Disease?

THE leading physicians of the United States, who know the composition of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, say that nothing else so good for the purification of the blood is within the range of pharmacy.

ONLY possible for a person who has corrupted blood to attain sound health and prevent transmission of the destructive taint to posterity.

THOROUGHLY effective renovation of the system must be effected by the purification of the blood, but its enrichment and the strengthening of the vital organs.

RELIABLE witnesses, all over the world, testify that by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, than by any other remedy.

BLOOD case is made pure, and blood weakened through diminution of the red corpuscles is made strong, by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

PURIFYING up the system require time in serious cases, but benefit will be derived from the use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA more speedily than from anything else.

MEDICINE for which the effects are rarely claimed, is abundant in the market, under many names, but the only preparation that has stood the test of time, and proved worthy of the world's confidence, is

THE FAIR.

A Splendid and Successful Entertainment.

SPANISH-AMERICAN CONCERT.

Picturesque Costumes, Beautiful Dresses, Pretty Faces—Notes Taken on the Fly.

There are fairs and fairs. Some of them are dreadful bores. The visitors yawn when they dare, but they seldom are accorded time to do so by the enterprising persons who have tickets for this or chances for that to dispose of. When such a fair is over those who have been compelled to visit it more than once generally feel thankful. The Bazaar of All Nations is a fair also, but it is not one of the kind just mentioned. The managers have striven to make it agreeable and interesting in all its features, and they have been eminently successful. The Bazaar of All Nations has been increasing in popularity from day to day, and last night Mott's Hall was, to say the least, overcrowded. The galleries were filled to their utmost capacity, and the auditorium—a large one—contained so many people that it left but little room for the grand march. The booths were resplendent with gaily costumed ladies, and pretty feminine faces were abundant. The draperies of the booths, also, had been looked after by artistic eyes, and there were none of those incongruities apparent which shock the eye of the average person. At 8 o'clock when the music struck up for the grand march the scene was a brilliant and gay one, not often witnessed in this city. The march was opened by a beautiful little girl dressed as a page, carrying a banner, and was followed by several ladies and gentlemen dressed in the Continental costume of the end of the last century, illustrated in the war of independence. There were also noble men and their gentle ladies, queens, Scotchmen and their ladies in kilts, Mohammedans and their harems, bevy of white-robed Icelandic maidens, Japanese ladies, Spanish ladies in black lace mantillas, Mexican ladies and gentlemen in national costumes, a hospital nurse of the red cross of Geneva, Indians, etc. The procession was greatly admired and deservedly so. After the grand march the concert of the Spanish-American booth took place—a rare treat to many of those present, strangers from the East, to whom such a spectacle was a delightful novelty. The incontestable merit of the performance, however, made it acceptable to old residents as much as to visitors. Following was the programme:

1. Mexican National Hymn, by Señoras Gonzalez, A. and M. Balade, Señoras Castellon, Señoras Castillo, Andorra, Arevalo.
2. The popular bull-fighters' song, sung by Mr. and Mrs. Castellon.
3. Havana song, by Señoras Gonzalez.
4. Popular Mexican song, by Señoras Balade.
5. Song, "La Golondrina," sung by Señoras Balade, and choros.
6. Mexican Jarabe dance, by Mrs. Castellon and Mr. Coronel.

The accompaniment, specially arranged by Prof. Arevalo, was rendered by Señoras Arzaga, Castellon and Arevalo. The Jarabe by Señoras Castellon and Señora Coronel was the most interesting event of the evening, receiving loud and continued applause. Don Antonio F. Coronel is said to be now 70 years old, yet his graceful manner won the admiration of all present. Voting is still very brisk at all the booths and some lively voting is expected before the close of the polls this evening. The voting for the most popular young man at the Spanish booth shows Mr. Harrington still ahead with 51 votes. W. D. Bigelow has 30 votes, Chas. E. Gault 14, J. M. Hammer 10, F. L. Baker 21, H. W. Bell 8, E. A. Perry 23, Dan Harrington 51 and Henry O'Melveny 3. The vote for the most popular editor, the prize for which is a rocking chair, stands as follows: H. J. Osborne 28, H. T. Payson 13, Col. Ois 28, J. D. Lynch 50, Mr. Cleveland 1. The vote on the two beautiful vases, also at the same booth, to be voted to the most popular young lady, is as follows: Mrs. John Bryson 185, Mrs. Dr. Burbank 20, Mrs. Hamilton 41, Mrs. J. Woodworth 288, Mrs. W. Woodworth 29, Mrs. A. F. Coronel 153, Mrs. Fountain 10. At the Martha Washington booth a handsome gold headed cane is being voted to the most popular banker. Mr. George H. Bonebrake leads with 257 votes, Mayor Spence 157, L. W. Hellman 140, Mr. Plater 40, Col. Boyce 17, Mr. Bryson 17.

Another gala night. Go and take your lunch at the Bazaar to-day. Chicken dinner, pretty lady waiters; only twenty-five cents. Sweet charity.

To-night there will be a grand flag drill by twelve young ladies. Commencing at seven o'clock to-night there will be an auction sale of all the unsold goods. The auction will last only an hour.

The lunch receipts yesterday amounted to over $97. They will amount to over $100 to-day.

The Bazaar will close with a social hop. Great credit is due to Mrs. Col. Vernon and to Mr. Castellon for the successful manner in which they managed the Spanish entertainment.

Judge K. M. Widney was besieged all evening by young ladies soliciting votes. The Judge responded generously. Mrs. C. W. Hicks appeared as Morning.

In the Flower Booth Madames Little-boy and Weid were assisted by the Misses Severance, Miss Barrows and Miss Sue Geller, who carried the floral banner.

Miss Laura Chauvin was accompanied by Miss May Hansen. Both ladies were elegantly attired and much admired.

Ben Ward is a regular attendant. Dr. Rebecca Dorsey looked very becoming in her elegant Egyptian costume.

Henry Wilson was with his charming sister, and took special delight in the Spanish dances.

Mrs. Frank R. Day makes a good representative of Columbia.

Hon. H. T. Hazard and wife were present, as usual. Mrs. Hazard was a hard worker, and her efforts have turned a good many dollars into the Sweet Charity Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Barclay sat in the Turkish Booth for a while and took a cup of coffee.

Ed. Entler made a good Uncle Sam. G. A. Dobinson, as the old Pasha, deceived many of his friends. His dress was complete and he acted his part well.

Pretty little Miss Anna Day was as cunning and cute as ever.

Miss Fannie Forester was with a stylish young man.

A number of society men sang several songs in the American Booth.

The American booth had eighteen representatives in the grand march.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens sat in the gallery and listened to the beautiful Spanish airs.

There was a very large attendance of the Spanish and Mexican people. Mr. D. C. Stevens, the reliable ticket seller, has been at his post of duty early and late.

Dr. Fay was all smiles last night. Major Bonebrake is popular among the ladies. He leads the other barbers in the contest for the gold-headed cane.

The ladies in the candy booth look so sweet and charming that everyone patronizes it, just to have a few minutes conversation with them.

The ice cream booth did a large business.

"THE FLIRT."

Messrs. Melbourne and Gills' Funny Farce.

The Florences appeared last night in that very well constructed bit of farceful dramatization, "The Flirt." It was the first time the piece had been put on the boards here. The rendition last night was all that could be expected.

The house was good in numbers, and decidedly an appreciative one. All present enjoyed every witty line and absurd situation in the play to the fullest extent and frequently called the clever Mr. and Mrs. Florence before the curtain.

The support was used to better advantage in "The Flirt" than in any other play of the week. There was no weak spot observable.

For the ladies is given a little sketch of Mrs. Florence's late, as follows:

A bit worn with the "Indian dress" in "The Flirt," is of the Gainsborough shape; material white straw; the broad brim is lined with velvet and trimmed with blue and scarlet in satin and feathers. Another dress is trimmed with peacock blue and shirring pink. A dainty French leghorn bonnet has a garniture of bluish rose and blue and crimson satin. A Parisian bonnet of shirring crepe, trimmed with perpendicular loops of the same, and edged with moulted beads, is charming.

Two other Gainsboroughs are trimmed: the one with garnet and blue, the other with cherry, in the same style. The lingerie of the wardrobe is exquisite. French embroidery and antique lace form the garniture.

At the matinee this afternoon "Our Governor" will be played, at which time every lady present will receive a souvenir in the shape of a pretty little silver plated hatcher.

At the farwell performance this evening, "The Mighty Dollar" holds the boards. On both occasions the house should be well filled.

Death of Miss Mary Coulter.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. B. Coulter will be pained to learn of the death of their daughter, Mary Belle Coulter, which occurred yesterday.

Miss Mary left school about six months ago in excellent health, but shortly afterwards a catarrhal trouble developed, which, despite the best of treatment, steadily grew worse. Finally a catarrhal fever set in, which, with other complications, caused her death. Miss Mary was in her fifteenth year, bright, intelligent and much beloved by all who knew her. Her death, although sudden, was not unexpected, as sometime since it became apparent that her disease must sooner or later prove fatal.

The funeral will take place to-day at 2 p. m. from the family residence, 115 North Charity street, near Temple.

The Party.

That took the I. B. Stetson hat yesterday had better return it as he is known.

CHICAGO HAT CO.

A Novel Performance.

A reporter of the HERALD stepped into Lewis Bros. shoe store last evening and beheld a novel sight. Erected in the center of the store is an immense stand that stares the visitor in the face. Extending from the ceiling to the floor it grows beneath the weight of a bewildering vista of toys and holiday gifts destined to gladden the hearts of the youngsters on Christmas day.

We saw displayed books, albums, drums, wagons, dolls, musical instruments, Japanese ware, queer little black dogs on stands, elegant cut glass bottles of perfume, arks and thousands of articles that attract the attention and please the eye. We learned that they will be given away to every purchaser commencing to-day.
